BIOGRAPHY

The BR5 Quintet is a Brazilian chamber ensemble with an inedited formation: four trombones and piano. The repertoire is focused on pieces for trombone and piano inspired in Brazilian rhythms and culture. The quintet was founded in 2022 and it is composed by the trombone players: Lélío Alves, Diego Ramires, Marcos Botelho, and Fábio Carmo, and the pianist Elisama Gonçalves. All the members are professors and active musicians from different regions of Brazil. The Quintet has performed in different states of Brazil, as well as, in Trombonanza Festival, Argentina (2023).
